MALC shall conduct the evaluation solely based on the bids received according to the evaluation criteria in Section 4. Evaluation of bids shall be undertaken in the following steps: a) Preliminary examination b) Evaluation of eligibility and qualification c) Evaluation of technical bids d) Evaluation of prices of bids found to be substantially compliant. After completion of the evaluation, but prior to award, MALC shall conduct a post-qualification assessment of the bidder recommended for the award (if pre-qualification was not done) as per Article 40 (Post-qualification).
36. Preliminary examination	MALC shall examine the bids to determine whether they are complete with respect to minimum documentary requirements, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order, among other indicators that may be used at this stage. 39. Evaluation of prices	The prices of bids found to be substantially compliant will be compared to identify the most substantially compliant bid which represents the lowest overall costs to MALC.
40. Post-qualification	MALC reserves the right to undertake a post-qualification assessment, aimed at determining, to its satisfaction, the validity of the information provided by the bidder. Such exercise shall be fully documented and may include, but need not be limited to, all or any combination of the following: a) Verification of accuracy, correctness and authenticity of the information provided by the bidder. b) Validation of the extent of compliance to the ITB requirements and evaluation criteria based on what has so far been found by the evaluation team. c) Inquiry and reference checking with Government entities with jurisdiction over the bidder, or with previous clients, or any other entity that may have done business with the bidder. d) Inquiry and reference checking with previous clients on the performance on ongoing or completed contracts, including physical inspections of previous works, as deemed necessary. e) Physical inspection of the bidder's offices, branches, or other places where business transpires, with or without notice to the bidder. f) Other means that MALC may deem appropriate, at any stage within the selection process, prior to awarding the contract.

The bidders' responses shall not contain any changes regarding the substance or price of the bid, except to confirm the correction of arithmetic errors discovered by MALC in the evaluation of the bids, in accordance with Instructions to Bidders Article 25 (Errors or omissions). MALC may use such information in interpreting and evaluating the relevant bid but is under no obligation to take it into account.

43. Nonconformities, reparable errors and omission	Provided that a bid is substantially responsive, MALC may waive any non-conformities or omissions in the bid that, in the opinion of MALC, do not constitute a material deviation. These are a matter of form and not of substance and can be corrected or waived without being prejudicial to other bidders. Provided that a bid is substantially responsive MALC may request the bidder to submit the necessary information or documentation, within a reasonable period, to rectify nonmaterial nonconformities or omissions in the bid related to documentation requirements. Such omission shall not be related to any aspect of the price of the bid. Failure of the bidder to comply with the request may result in the rejection of its bid. For bids that have passed the preliminary examination, MALC shall check, and correct arithmetical errors as follows: a) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the line-item total that is obtained by multiplying the unit price by the quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the line-item total shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of MALC there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price; in which case, the line-item total as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected; b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail, and the total shall be corrected; and c) If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail. If the bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated bid does not accept the correction of errors, its bid shall be rejected, and its bid security may be forfeited.
44. Right to accept any bid and to reject any or all bids	MALC reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to contract award, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder or bidders or any obligation to inform the affected bidder or bidders of the grounds for MALC's action. SECTION 6: CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT/PO AND CONTRACT FORMS

6.1 Standard Terms and Conditions for Purchase Order

1. Agreement

Acceptance of this Purchase Order (PO) by the Supplier shall effect a contract between MALC and the Supplier

(each, a “Party” and jointly, the “Parties”). The Supplier's acknowledgement of the PO, delivery of any goods under the PO, or acceptance of any payment shall constitute acceptance of the PO. The rights and obligations of the Parties shall be governed solely by the PO which shall include the Standard Terms & Conditions and any Annexes (collectively, the “Agreement”). No additional or inconsistent provisions proposed by the Supplier shall bind MALC unless agreed to in writing by a duly authorized MALC official. In the event of a conflict between the terms of any Annex to the PO and the Standard Terms & Conditions, the Standard Terms & Conditions shall prevail. The Supplier agrees to provide the goods as described in the PO in accordance with the Standard Terms & Conditions and any Annexes.

2. PO Identification

The PO number must appear on all invoices, bills of lading, packing slips, cartons, and correspondence.

3. Delivery

Time is of the essence in the performance of this Agreement. If the Supplier fails to make available or provide the goods within the delivery schedule stated on this PO, together with associated shipment documentation (including, without limitation, bills of lading, airway bills and commercial invoices) as are specified in the Agreement or otherwise as are customarily utilized in the trade, MALC reserves the right to (a) cancel the PO without liability and charge to the Supplier for any costs incurred as a result of Supplier's failure to deliver within the delivery schedule specified, and (b) without prejudice to other remedies under this PO, deduct liquidated damages for delay. The amount of such liquidated damages shall be 0.1% of the value of the total value of goods per day or part thereof up to a maximum of 10% of the total value of the goods. MALC shall have the right to deduct such amount from the Supplier's outstanding invoices, if any. Such liquidated damages shall only be applied when delay is caused solely by the default of the Supplier. Acceptance of goods delivered late shall not be deemed a waiver of MALC's rights to hold the Supplier liable for any loss and/or damage resulting therefrom, nor shall it act as a modification of the Supplier's obligation to deliver further goods in accordance with the Agreement.

4. Payment

Supplier shall invoice MALC upon delivery of the goods and payment shall be made within the period stated in the “Terms of Payment” of the PO, after receipt of the invoice, proof of dispatch and any other documents specified in the Agreement.

5. Adjustment

MALC reserves the right to change at any time the quantity, packaging, unit size, place and/or time of delivery. Supplier agrees to proceed with this PO in accordance with any such change(s) and to submit a claim request for an equitable adjustment in the PO price or delivery term caused by such change(s). Any claim by Supplier for equitable adjustments under this clause shall be invalid unless communicated in writing within 10 calendar days from receipt by Supplier of MALC's change(s). No change in, modification of, or revision to this PO shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of MALC.

6. Packaging

Supplier must provide proper and adequate packaging in accordance with best commercial practice, to ensure that the goods being delivered to MALC will be free of damage. Packaging must be adequate to allow for rough handling during transit, exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit and open storage, with consideration for the type of goods and transportation mode. MALC reserves the right to reject any shipment that is deemed not to have been packaged adequately.

7. Inspection and Acceptance

- (a) MALC or its representative shall have the right to inspect and/or test the goods at no extra cost to MALC at the premises of the Supplier, at the point of delivery or at the final destination. The Supplier shall facilitate such inspections/testing and provide required assistance.
- (b) MALC shall have 10 calendar days after receipt of the goods to inspect them and either accept or reject them as non-conforming with this PO. Based on an inspection of a valid sample, MALC may reject the entire delivery. MALC may also charge the cost of inspecting rejected goods to the Supplier. MALC's right to reject the goods shall not be limited or waived by the goods having been previously inspected or tested by MALC prior to delivery.

- (c) At the request of MALC, the Supplier will replace some or all rejected goods at the Supplier's cost (including transportation), or fully reimburse MALC for the price paid (including transportation) for the rejected goods. MALC may return rejected goods to the Supplier (transportation charges for the Supplier's account), or hold rejected goods for disposition at Supplier's risk and expense.
- (d) Supplier agrees that MALC's payment under this PO shall not be deemed acceptance of any goods delivered hereunder.
